
Laurence Lamy appointed Managing Director of the EDF Group Corporate Foundation

In a meeting on 27 July 2017 and at the suggestion of the Chairman of the EDF Group Corporate Foundation, Jean-Bernard Lévy, the EDF Group Corporate Foundation's Board of Directors decided to appoint Laurence Lamy as its new Managing Director, replacing Hugues Renson.

Laurence Lamy, aged 49 and a graduate of the IEP in Paris, joined the EDF Group in 1993.

She has been in charge of a number of projects promoting social and managerial innovation in different areas (Distribution, Customers, Generation, Finance, Group University) and countries in which the Group is involved (France, Poland, United Kingdom, China).

Since 2014, she had been Senior Executive Career Manager at EDF Generation and Engineering within the Group's HR Department.

In her managerial positions and in the field of human resources, she has always demonstrated her commitment to nurturing human capital and her determination to engage and develop the talents of individual employees.

In her new role as Managing Director within the EDF Group Corporate Foundation, she will be able to draw on the efforts and skills of the Group's employees for the successful completion of public-interest projects promoting solidarity and progress.

About the EDF group Corporate Foundation

The EDF group Corporate Foundation's goal is to support initiatives that help to build a fairer, more humane society. To this end, the Foundation is involved in two main areas: solidarity and progress.

It promotes social inclusion and professional integration through EDF's Fonds Agir pour l'emploi, and is developing a programme of international solidarity to boost access to energy and to essential goods.

The Foundation also strives to encourage access to skills and scientific knowledge, support medical research and contribute to digital development for everyone, all with a view to promoting progress.

A key player in energy transition, the EDF Group is an integrated electricity company, active in all areas of the business: generation, transmission, distribution, energy supply and trading, energy services. A global leader in low-carbon energies, the Group has developed a diversified generation mix based on nuclear power, hydropower, new renewable energies and thermal energy. The Group is involved in supplying energy and services to approximately 37.1 million customers, of which 26.2 million in France. The Group generated consolidated sales of €71 billion in 2016. EDF is listed on the Paris Stock Exchange.
